

No-fault Divorce

(when applying jointly as a couple)

1 Start the divorce, jointly as a couple.

- Applicant 1 starts the divorce
- Applicant 2 fills in their information and submits it to the court
- Applicant 1 then submits the application to court

Ensure you have everything you need including your original marriage certificate and court fee

2 The court starts the divorce and 20-week reflection period begins.

After submitting your application to the court, the court will officially start your divorce

3 Couple applies for the 'Conditional Order'.

After submitting your application for the 'Conditional Order', a legal advisor reviews your application and if they approve your divorce they'll provide a 'Certificate of Entitlement' to confirm the date of your 'Conditional Order'

4 The court reviews your application.

Once a legal advisor has approved your application, the court can grant your 'Conditional Order'

5 The court grants the 'Conditional Order'.

This is the first opportunity to send your consent order to the court.

This kicks off the 6 week waiting period before the couple can file for the 'Final Order'

6 Couple applies for the 'Final Order'.

7 The court grants your 'Final Order', you are officially divorced.
